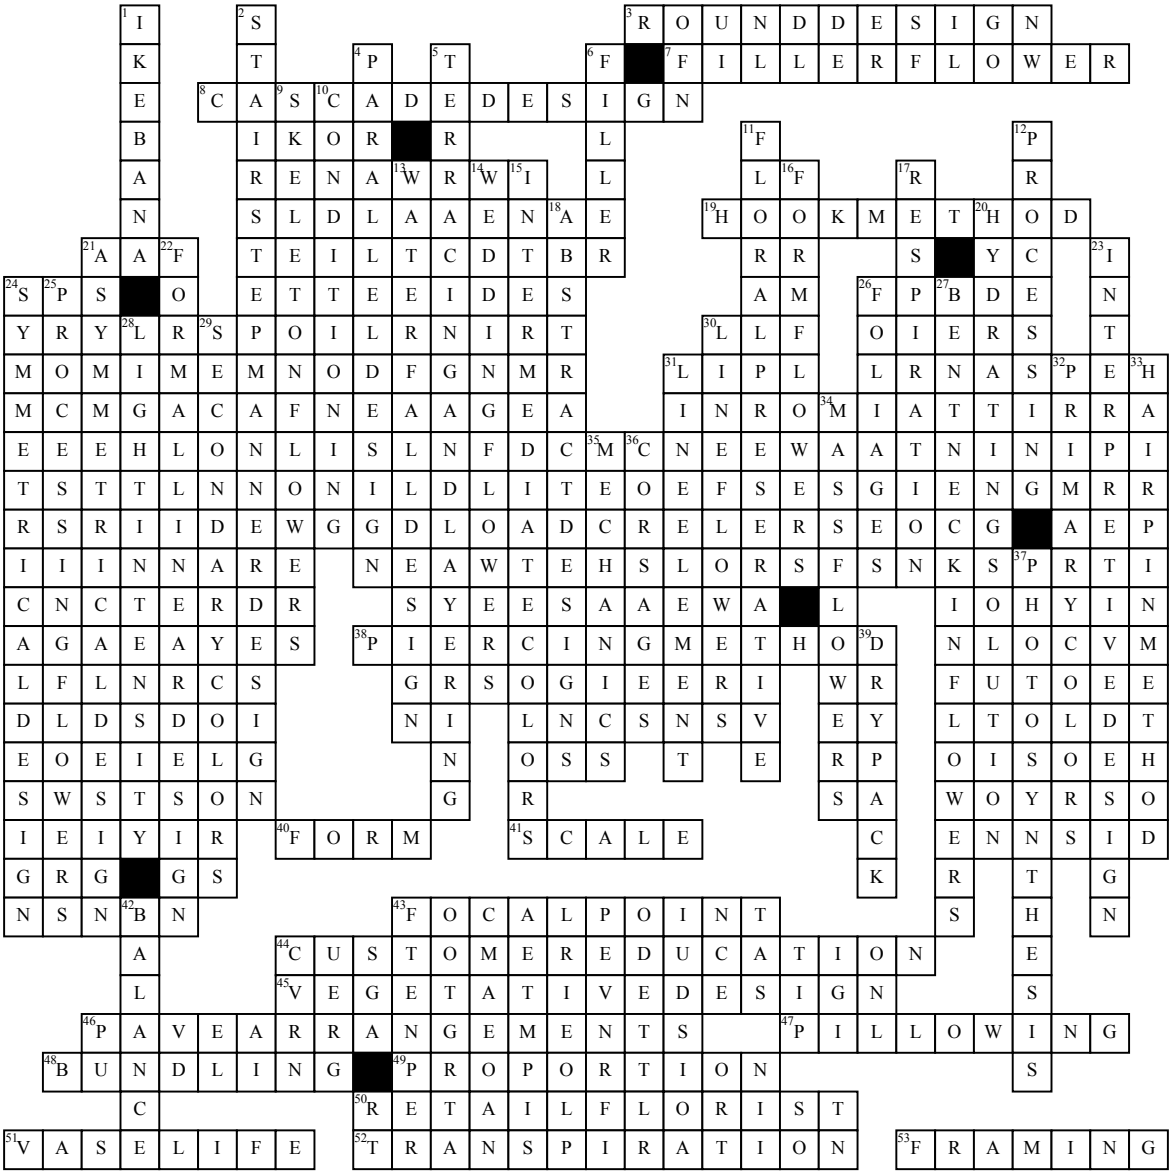
Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Rae Lara's Floral Design Vocabulary word puzzle



Across

3. This design does not require a focal point.

7. What is a type of flower used to complete a design?

8. This is a design consisting of several layers of materials, varying in size and texture to create a flowering effect.

19. This method is a wiring technique in which the wire is inserted through the flower and a small hook is formed in the wire before it is pulled back into the flower.

38. What is defined as "corsage wiring technique in which a wire is inserted through the calyx and bent downward along the stem?

40. the geometric shape or line design that forms the outline of the arrangement

41. What is the relationship between the completed arrangement and its location?

43. What is the location within a design that attracts the most attention: the center of interest?

44. This is what a florist provides the customer in order to help them enjoy their flowers to the fullest extent.

45. What word is defined as "a feature of this style of design is the seasonal compatibility of the plant materials in the design?"

46. This is a technique characterized by parallel or surface contoured insertions that create a uniform area with little or no variation in depth?

47. What word is defined as "the tight positioning of flower cluster at the base of an arrangement forming rounded hills?"

48. What word is defined as "firmly wrapping or tying similar materials together to form a larger individual unit?

49. What is defined as "the relationship between the flowers, foliage and container?"

50. What word is defined as sells floral goods and services to the consumer.

51. What word is defined as the length of useful life of cut floral materials after being received by the customer ?

52. What is the process of plants losing water through stomata in their leaves?

53. What word is defined as " a design technique in which branches of flowers are used around the perimeter of a floral arrangement to direct attention to the materials in the center of the arrangement?"

Down

1. What word is defined as "the Japanese style of floral arrangements characterized by their linear forms?"

2. What is defined as " the placement of cut material in a parallel design in each group in order to create depth?"

4. What is a design that consists of clusters or groups of flowers and foliage that strengthens the element of line which moves the eye through the arrangement?

5. What word is defined as "a similar design technique to place similar materials horizontally on top of each other?"

6. What word is defined as floral material that has an "airy" look to create the finishing touch ?

9. What is the name of the primary or line flowers used in a design to establish the outline of the arrangement?

10. What is the process in which cut flowers and foliage have been tested to extend their freshness

11. What is a chemical consisting of a mixture of ingredients that when added to water extends the vase life of cut flowers by lowering the water PH?

12. What word is defined as cutting flowers stems properly and providing proper treatment at any stage of the distribution process ?

13. What is the name of a design where shorter stems of mass flowers provide a color and focal point near the rim of the container?

14. These flowers include a bride's bouquet, bridesmaid bouquet, boutonnieres, table decorations, etc.

15. What is defined as a combination of equal amounts of primary color and adjacent secondary color?

16. What is used to create focal point with unusual and distinctive shapes?

17. What is the cell process in which stored food reserves are converted into useful energy for the plant?

18. What contains more than one single focal point?

20. What is a citric acid solution that causes flowers to take up water rapidly to prevent dehydration after flowers are dry packed?

21. What is a triangular pattern with a strong "L-Line"?

22. What is an asymmetrically balanced design of few materials usually placed in groups that emphasize forms and lines?

23. What is a combination of both natural and man made materials in an unnatural manner to create new images?

24. This is a formal, equilateral triangular design.

25. What is the action that growers, wholesalers, and retail florists must do with their flowers?

26. The purpose of this is to hide the mechanics in a flower arrangement.

27. What happens due to the inability of water entering the stem?

28. What word is defined as "the level of light received on a plant surface?"

29. What is defined as two primary colors combined in equal amounts?

30. What is defined as "used as primary flowers to establish the skeleton outline height or with of arrangement?"

31. The element of the line in a floral arrangement is the visual path the eye follows as it proceeds through the arrangement.

32. Red, yellow and blue are called this.

33. This is a corsage wiring technique in which the wire is shaped into a hairpin.

34. What are usually single stem with large rounded heads used inside or along the arrangement to fill in?

35. What word is defined as supplies, methods and materials that designers use to place and hold flowers and foliage in an arrangement ?

36. What is constructed as light as possible using a number 3 ribbon as a bow and a wire number 24-28 depending on the weight of the flower?

37. What word is defined as " the process of converting nutrients, water, carbon dioxide and sunlight into food for plants?"

39. What word is defined as "the storage or shipment of flowers out of water ?

42. What is defined as "the impression of the design being stable and self-supported?"