Name:	Date:

Skills Fair

Across

- 4. skin exposed around stoma when fitting pouch
- 5. dressing which protects fragile skin
- 9. absorbs drainage and used in tunnels
- 12. scale used to determine risk of developing pressure ulcer
- 13. non adherent foam which decreases infection risk
- 14. absorbs drainage non tunneled wounds
- 15. pouch used on existing ileal conduit

- 18. palpable bone in ulcer caused by pressure
- 20. used to close flaps on skin tears
- 21. red skin that blanches over a pressure point
- 22. moistens dry wounds

Down

- 1. fluid filled blister over boney prominence
- 2. ulcer that extends into the subcutaneous tissue
- 3. pouch used oncolostomy/ileostomy
- 6. ulcer on sole of foot usually in diabetic patients

- 7. used in ostomy care to fill divits
- 8. pouch used on new urostomy
- 10. wound on leg present in edematous legs
- 11. black leathery tissue over wound
- 16. decreases ph in wound and autolytically debrides wounds
- 17. purple non blanchable skin
- 19. base of ulcer caused by pressure is obscurred by slough or eschar