

Child Development Theories

Across

3. Helping children learn by assisting them

4. What a child can do on their own in comparison to what they can accomplish with help

11. The time the child is in (Ecology)

12. Who is the cognitive theorist who said that children develop in four stages that must be sequential

13. The study of the brain

14. This man said that children are not a "social vacuum" rather children learn through relationships and connections

Down

1. The first stage in Piaget's theory

2. The stage in Piaget's theory where children start representing the world through words, drawings and images

5. A state of balance

6. The level closest to children in the Ecological theory

7. What is another word for a filing system in your brain?

8. The child has no direct control (Ecology)

9. When we are confused and imbalanced.

10. This theorist said that children learn through their interaction with the environment