Journalism 2 Terms.

Across

1. like a headline/title in a story

5. when text flows around other elements on page

9. time at which all copy of newspaper is due.

10. the largest element on the page. should be larger than everything else

11. a graph/picture/chart/ect, that gives additional information in the story.

14. byline for a picture

15. used under a head line, it provides additional information for reader

Down

2. block of text were one side is uneven

3. newspaper with small sized paper.

4. short informational stories or ads that are timeless and can fill up space

6. put larger headlines (due to importance) higher on the page. headlines should be smaller as the reader descends on the page.

7. line at top of of inside page that tells issue date, page number, & section

8. nespaper with a large page size & is regarded as more serious.

12. page opposite of editorial page

13. caption. should contain at least two sentences