

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

The Giver

Across

2. White powdery flakes that fall from the sky when it's below freezing
5. What Jonas and his family are part of (like a town nowadays)
7. A building that stores records about citizens and events
10. A place where salmon are raised for people's consumption
13. The character who transfers the memory's to Jonas
15. Check and sort through carefully
16. To laugh at with contempt and derision

17. Something that will always be in your mind for you to remember

18. The thing that children receive from the chief elder at the ceremony of twelve

19. Something the pill controls

20. To be praised to a high degree

Down

1. A veichele with two wheels that children get at the ceremony of nine

3. A stuffed animal that is issued to an infant until the child becomes an eight

4. The main character in the story that becomes the receiver of memory

6. Newborns or infants in the community

8. Mentally upset over possible misfortune or danger

9. Jonas's sister

11. Another name for a home

12. A female that is assigned to give birth to three children within three years and then becomes a laborer

14. Older people in the community that are part of the committee and make some decisions