Name: _____ Date: _____

College Success

Across

2. A temporary job, paid or unpaid, usually in the field of your major. You may be able to receive college credit for this opportunity.

4. Time set aside by professors or teaching assistants for students to visit their office and ask questions or discuss the course they teach.

7. An official academic record from a specific school. It lists the courses you have completed, grades and information such as when you attended.

11. A form of financial aid that you do not have to repay, in which students typically apply based on certain criteria.

13. A form of financial aid that you must repay.

14. A college program that provides part-time jobs for undergraduate and graduate students with financial need, allowing them to earn money to help pay education expenses.

15. A degree awarded to undergraduates, usually after four years of college classes.

16. A university that is funded by the government.

Down

1. First-year college student

3. A form of financial aid from a non-profit organization (such as the government) that you do not have to repay.

5. A type of degree awarded to students at a US community college, usually after two years of classes.

6. Your primary area of study.

8. A program created by the College Board which offers college-level curricula and examinations to high school students.

9. School official, usually assigned by your college or university, who can help choose your classes and make sure you are taking the right courses to graduate.

10. The required financial aid form filled out by college or graduate students who are eligible for government-sponsored financial aid.

12. A class you can take that is not specifically required by your major or minor.