

Name: _____

Date: _____

Poetry Terms Year 7

Across

1. a seemingly contradictory phrase or sentence
2. the repetition of vowel sounds
6. a mournful, melancholy, or plaintive poem, especially a funeral song or a lament for the dead.
9. a run-on or continuous line in poetry
11. a narrative poem, often of folk origin and intended to be sung, consisting of simple stanzas and usually having a refrain
14. a poem with 14 lines ending in a rhyming couplet
15. the internal beat of the poem

17. giving human or living characteristics to non-living things
20. a number of poetry lines which make up one unit/idea of the poem
21. the speaker in the poem
22. over exaggeration for effect

Down

3. where the end words in a line of poetry sound the same
4. stands for something other than itself
5. the repetition of consonants
7. the word is the sound
8. a comparison between two things without using 'like' or 'as'

10. the deliberate reorganizing of words in a sentence for emphasis
12. the atmosphere or emotion created through words or imagery
13. a comparison between two things using 'like' or 'as'
16. is a very short form of Japanese poetry that uses sensory language to capture a feeling or image.
18. a poem usually in three parts which addresses and celebrates a person or thing of value
19. the main idea or message of the poem/text