

Algebra 1 Crossword Puzzle

Across

2. A replacement value for the variable in an open sentence
3. The given point from which all points of the circle are the same distance
4. The measure of the surface enclosed by a geometric figure
6. In an expression of the form x^n , the base is x
8. the ratio of successive terms of a geometric sequence
9. An error that results in a misrepresentation of members of population

Down

1. Each entry in a matrix
5. To find the value of an expression
7. A line or curve that separates the coordinate plane into regions
10. the numerical factor of a term
11. The sum of two monomials
12. A graphical display that uses bars to display numerical data that have been organized
13. A graphic form using bars to make comparisons of statistics
14. The line that most closely approximates the data in a scatter plot
15. Data with two variables
16. The set $(-2, -1, 0, 1, 2)$
17. the distance across a circle through its center
18. An arrangement or listing in which order is not important
19. the difference between the terms in an arithmetic sequence
20. A diagram that divides a set of data into four parts using the median, max, minimum, and quartiles