

Sponge Crossword by jenna

Across

2. sponges are called what for being attached to some surface
3. mesh-like internal skeleton is called what
5. sponges are made out of what
7. sponges can go through what kind of process
9. free swimming larvae of sponges are called what

10. eggs and sperm is released into the water, this is called what
11. sponges have not back bone which classifies them as what
12. what other name is for wandering cells
13. scattered or circular pores is called what
14. sponges have holed cells called what

Down

1. food sticks to what kind of cell as it is transferred
4. are sponges symmetrical
6. what kind of feeders are sponges
8. water leaves the sponge by going through what exit