Convict Life - History

Across
1. Nearly 1500 men, women and children were on board when the first fleet weight_____
2. What was their toilet in the convict home?
3. The whole rebellion had lasted only three____
4. Convicts who had skill such as carpentry were put to use ____ new town and others were growing around it.
5. In 1770 Captain James Cook had sighted and charted much of the ____ coastline of Australia?
6. Captain Phillip thought the entire voyage would end in ____
7. On the evening of 4 ____ 1804 the rebellion began
8. Convicts spend long periods in____
9. Over the 80 years from 1788 until the last convicts arrived in 1868, approximately 160000 ____ were transported to Australia colonies

Down
1. Captain Cook named the bay Port_____
2. 1770 Captain____ had sailed past another bay a few kilometres to the north
3. the Captain of the fleet____ Phillip
4. In ____ 1986 the British government made the decision to establish a convict settlement in NSW
5. Floggings and ____ were common
6. Just over 200 ____ sailed with their fleet?
7. How many months did they spend in Rio de Jaeiro
8. What year was the first fleet
9. What was the first stop was called ____ de Jaeiro
10. what is Boatney Bays name nower days?
11. Captain ____ knew that the long voyage across the Indian Ocean could be the most treacherous of all.