

Name: _____

Fur Trade Puzzle

Across

2. A boatman employed by the fur companies in transporting goods and passengers to and from trading posts.
3. The action of finding and killing animals for food and other needs.
7. The hair that covers many animals. It is often used to make clothing.
16. A long decorated pipe smoked by the Native peoples representing as a token of peace.
18. The original inhabitants of a land.
20. A trade company which had many posts on the western side of Canada and dealt directly with their native trading partners.
21. A way of transportation used to cross waters.
23. A trade company which had posts throughout Rupert's Land. Also the oldest continuous corporation in the world.
27. A country located in North America. The land is heavily forested and the winters are cold.
28. A staple food for fur traders that was a nutritious mixture of buffalo meat and fat.

29. The military commander who led the French in the Siege of Quebec.

30. A fortress located in the Gulf of St. Lawrence. The first part of James Wolfe's three part plan in winning the Seven Years' War.

31. Led the British in the Siege of Quebec. Died during the Battle on the Plains of Abraham.

32. Was captured by the British to cripple the French fur trade.

Down

1. The country that Paris is located in.

4. A store or small settlement established for trading, typically in a remote place.

5. A disease caused by no consumption of vitamin C for a long period of time.

6. The infectious lung disease that James Wolfe suffered from in his last few months.

8. The land that is now Nova Scotia. Its citizens were removed from their homes in 1755 by the British.

9. Led the first Spanish expedition of the west coast of Canada to map the coastline.

10. A plant that was used for smoking. It was sold at trading posts.

11. 7 years...Also known as Queen Anne's War.

12. A quick battle between the British and French for the land and control over the fur trade in Canada.

13. Land that had rivers flow into Hudson's Bay.

14. The third part of Wolfe's attack. It is now a French speaking province in Canada.

15. Proved the Northwest passage did not exist on his third voyage.

17. A powerful country located in Western Europe. Their soldiers are known for wearing red.

19. A weapon that fires off shots using gunpowder.

22. What the HBC called their posts.

24. The first and most important HBC post. The fur shipments were sent to England from here.

25. An explosive powder used for firing ammunition which was sold at trading posts.

26. Adult beaver fur that was used to gauge the values of other furs and as a currency at HBC posts.