

Name: _____

Date: _____

Parliamentary Procedure Abilities

Across

3. To close debate and secure an immediate vote on one or more pending questions.

9. To bring a motion back to the table that has already been passed.

12. To cut something out of a meeting without violating the rules.

13. To introduce business for consideration and action.

14. To delay the action of a motion until later in the present meeting or the next.

15. To require a rising vote when a member questions the results of a voice or show of hands vote.

Down

1. To allow the assembly to altogether avoid the consideration of an original main motion.

2. To correct the president in mistake he/she has made.

4. To correct a mistake made in parli-pro by any member.

5. To obtain information on a matter of parliamentary law.

6. To delay actions on a motion until a more appropriate, scheduled time.

7. To put a small group of people in charge of a task.

8. To stop a main motion and get rid of it forever.

10. To end the meeting.

11. To change a main motion.