

Criminal Investigation

Across

1. A formal statement admitting that one is guilty of a crime
4. A law that prohibits the use of illegally obtained evidence in a criminal trial
5. allows law enforcement, under certain circumstances, to enter a structure without a search warrant or, if they have a "knock and announce" warrant, without knocking and waiting for refusal
11. The process of looking for evidence of a crime
13. The title of clauses appearing in both the Fifth and Fourteenth amendments to the Constitution of the United States
15. The number of steps in the Reid interrogation method
16. The practice of persuading someone to do something by using force or threats

17. A condition in which an officer has suspicion about an individual and knowledge of facts and circumstances that would lead a reasonable person to believe that a crime has been, is being, or is about to be, committed
18. A limited pat down of the outer clothing of a person encountered by a law enforcement officer when the person is acting suspiciously, and the officer, concerned about safety, seeks to determine if the person has a weapon

Down

2. Scientific tests or techniques used in connection with the detection of crime
3. A sworn, written statement of the information known to an officer that serves as the basis for the issuance of an arrest warrant or a search warrant
6. That branch of criminal law dealing with the elements that describe and define a crime

7. The process of questions asked by police to a person arrested or suspected to seek answers to a crime
8. The act of formally asserting that a particular person is to be prosecuted for a crime
9. A temporary and limited interference with a person's freedom for investigative purposes. Also called investigative detention, street stop, and field interrogation
10. The process of taking a person into legal custody to answer a criminal charge
12. The process of taking evidence into the custody of a law enforcement agency
14. An official document, signed by a judge (or magistrate), which authorizes a police to search, seize or arrest

Word Bank

search	arrest	detention	interrogation nine	affidavit	coercion	exigent circumstances
exclusionary rule	due process	stop and frisk	forensics substantive	warrant	probable cause	charging seizure	confession		