

Name: _____

Date: _____

Nonfiction Vocabulary

Across

3. method of writing about a topic by identifying its problems and presenting one or more solutions. (Answer: _____ and _____)

4. A list that shows the major chapters and parts of the book as well as the page numbers.

9. A piece of Nonfiction writing that is written about a memory of the author's life.

11. to note what is similar and different about (two or more things) (Answer: _____ and _____)

13. A kind of writing that creates a mood or emotion or to recreate a person, place, or an event.

15. An account of the writer's own life and has a plot.

17. a type of nonfiction that explains, gives information and clarifies an idea.

18. writing that primarily deals with real people, events, and places.

Down

1. noting a relationship between actions or events. (Answer: _____ and _____)

2. An accounts of a person's life written by another person.

5. A drawing intended to explain how something works.

6. A text structure that is arranged according to the order of time.

7. A secondary heading added underneath a subject heading.

8. A picture that emphasizes key points and adds interest.

10. a kind of writing that tries to convince the reader to act or think a certain way

12. words underneath/beside photographs, illustrations, or charts explaining what it is

14. a kind of writing that tells a true story.

16. Text that is heavier and darker than the rest of the text.