

Name: _____

Date: _____

OnGuardians

Across

2. A type of behavior intended to trick people into disclosing confidential information.
3. Type of security restricting printing or copying of documents, locking doors, and erasing whiteboards.
7. Broad term applying to sensitive information.
8. Type of password balances easy to remember yet hard to guess.
9. Type of network typically used to connect family and friends.

11. The practice of sending spoofed email messages with the intention of collecting information for malicious purposes.

12. Attempt to damage, disrupt, or gain unauthorized access to a computer system or electronic communications network.

14. Transfer file by email.

15. Type of sensitive information protected by law or regulation.

Down

1. Information embedded in an electronic document.

4. A U.S. law designed to provide privacy standards & security requirements for health information (acronym).

5. A sequence of words or other text used to control access to a computer system, program or data.

6. Malicious software which can infect computers, smartphones, tablets, and network servers until a sum of money is paid.

10. Act that established penalties for Business Associates that violate HIPAA requirements (acronym).

13. Computing resources delivered as a service over a network.