

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Soccer

Across

2. They are often among the most hard-working players playing both offense and defense.
4. Taking a ball from an opponent by using the feet.
9. They finish the attack and try to score.
10. Ruled by the referee when a player does something that is likely to cause injury. Ex. Bringing th foot up above shoulder level or putting the head down to heady a low ball.
13. The goal keeper's stopping of a goal.
15. A Way of moving the ball along the ground by using the feet while keeping the ball under control.
17. The act of moving the ball away from the goal and out of scoring range.
18. Awarded to the defending team when the ball crosses their goal line after having been touched last by the attacking team.

19. Is awarded to the attacking team if the ball crosses the goal line having been last touched by one of the defending team players.
20. What is the term used for a pass from the outside of the field near the sideline into the center in an attempt to score?
21. Their primary role is to take the ball away from the offense and start the attack in their team's favor.

Down

1. Term used when the ball is thrown into play with both hands, from behind and over the head.
3. An illegal act of intentionally touching the ball (on purpose) with the hands or arms (from shoulder to finger tips).
5. A kick from which a goal may be scored directly. It is awarded as a result of a Personal Foul: kicking, tripping, pushing, or holding.

6. The act of stopping the ball and bringing the ball under your control.
7. True or False: Only one foot must remain on the ground during the act of throwing the ball in from out-of-bounds.
8. Awarded for any direct fouls or intentional handling of the ball by defensive players within their own penalty area.
11. Awarded for violations of playing rules such as unsportsmanlike conduct, delay of game, off-sides. For a goal to be scored it must be touched by another player.
12. An act of directing the ball with your forehead.
14. The start of a soccer game.
16. They are the only players allowed to touch the ball with their hands.