

Name: _____

Date: _____

HIV and AIDS Crossword

Across

3. What is the defense system in the body that fights infections?

6. In the acronym "HIV," what does the "I" stand for?

9. What virus destroys CD4 cells?

10. In the acronym "HIV," what does the "H" stand for?

11. What type of defense cells does the HIV virus attach itself to?

12. What type of cells are CD4 helper cells?

14. People can prevent contracting HIV and later on AIDS by being what?

15. A symptom of HIV and AIDS can be heavy _____ at night, even if the room is ice cold.

Down

1. The HIV virus can be spread by this type of device (HINT: MANY PEOPLE ARE AFRAID OF THEM)

2. The HIV virus can be spread through what?

4. This advanced stage of HIV occurs when a person with HIV has an extremely low number of CD4 cells.

5. A symptom of HIV and AIDS that can be dramatic and is noticeable after just a few weeks of contracting the virus.

7. A disease that someone is more susceptible to get when they have AIDS? (This disease affects the surface of the brain). this is a challenging question

8. A symptom of HIV and AIDS can be a _____ which is persistent and won't go away.

13. In the acronym "HIV," what does the "V" stand for?