

Alzheimer's

Across

1. the ability to move around
5. a fixed, false belief that is not based on reality
6. any device, garment, medication that limits or restricts freedom of movement
8. acronym that stands for dignity, independence, preferences, privacy, and safety
9. Seeing, smelling, hearing, tasting or feeling something that is not real

11. the state of being free from actual, threatened or imagined danger, risk or injury

12. progressive, degenerative disease that gradually destroys nerve cells in the areas of the brain

Down

2. a general term that describes the progressive loss of brain functions
3. a condition in which the signs, symptoms and behaviours of dementia increase when it gets dark

4. a document that details the care and services the client should receive

7. the ability to recognize, perceive, and have an understanding of another person's emotions by seeing things from his or her viewpoint

10. Inability of a person to think with the usual speed or clarity or to recall people, time or places