

UNIT 1

Across

- 3. The study of nonverbal communication
- 7. An overproduction of Red Blood Cells (RBC's)
- 11. type of consent without verbal or written expression of consent
- 12. Compares current results of a laboratory test with previous results for the same test on the same patient
- 13. The study of and individuals use of space
- 14. System of policies or principles that regulate what should and should not be done by those who work in the healthcare setting.

15. When the alleged injured party sues for monetary damages

Down

- 1. This word literally means to cut a vein
- 2. An infection control strategy that states all patients are considered potentially infectious
- 4. identifying and minimizing situations that pose a risk to patients or employees
- 5. A deceitful practice or false portrayal of facts, often done to obtain money or property

6. Doing something a reasonable person would not do or not doing something a reasonable person would do

- 8. Type of consent when the patient is given adequate information regarding the risks, method and consequences of the procedure
- 9. This was used for general phlebotomy to open an artery or vein, today it is related to a lancet.
- 10. Doing what is right regardless of the circumstances and in all situations or interactions is showing what quality?