

Name: _____

Date: _____

Macbeth Act II

Across

3. The Macbeths hear this sound as they wash themselves free of blood. (II, ii)

8. As he walks to the door, the porter pretends that he is a gatekeeper in what place? (Act II, iii)

11. After Duncan's death, Lady Macbeth tells her husband, "Go carry them and smear The sleepy grooms with ____." Act II, ii

14. Lady Macbeth puts these in the servant's wine. (II, ii) hint: use the plural form

15. Its ringing tells Macbeth its time to kill. (II, i)

16. In Act II, ii, the scene with the Porter provides a bit of ____ relief after the heaviness of the murder scene.

17. In Act II, scene i, Banquo admits he has a dream about them

18. Who finds Duncan's body?

19. After Macbeth kills Duncan, what religious word could he no longer utter? Act II, ii

20. In Act II, ii Lady Macbeth admits, "That which hath made them drunk hath made me bold." To whom does she refer? hint: add the article 'the' before the word

Down

1. What strange things did Duncan's horses do.

2. In Act II, iii who's the third person for whom the porter pretends to open the gate? hint: two words preceded by an article.

4. Banquo assures Macbeth that he will help him anyway his can; however, he must keep his ____ clear. (II, i): hint: modern text translation.

5. To calm her husband down, Lady Macbeth tells her husband to pretend the bodies are these inanimate objects. (II, ii)

6. Macbeth hallucinates and sees a this floating in the air. (II, i) Hint: it's covered in liquid

7. In Act II, iii who's the second person for whom the porter pretends to open the gate? hint: Elizabethan English Term with an article before it.

9. As Lennox is waiting for King Duncan to appear, he comments on the "Lamentings heard i' th' air, ____ of death" he heard throughout the night.

10. what does Macbeth do to King Duncan's servants in order to cover his tracks?

12. In Act II, scene iii, who's the first person for whom the porter pretends to open the castle gate?..hint: add an article first.

13. What do the Duncan's sons do once they discover their father has died.