

Civil Law

Across

2. Occurs when one person unlawfully detains another person
3. The direct application of force on another person
9. A person's expression of willingness to enter into an agreement
13. A civil wrong
14. The action of showing something to be right or reasonable
15. These defences are specific and find application in relation to a fixed nature of tort
16. Permission for something to happen or agreement to do something
17. A remark or statement made by a judge that does not form a part of the judgment but is used by way of analogy or example.

18. The person against whom a civil action is brought in the courts
  19. The state of affairs where an action is necessary to avoid death or injury to a person
  20. Reviewers and commentators are protected from defamation action because they present an honest opinion
- Down

1. An action inviting other parties to make an offer to form a contract
4. The rule that states that courts will stand by decisions handed down by higher courts, in the same hierarchy, in like cases
5. A written or oral statement that injures a person's good reputation
6. A moral or legal obligation to ensure the safety or well-being of others

7. A special right, advantage, or immunity granted or available only to a particular person or group
8. To a willing person, injury is not done
10. The judge's reason for their decision that forms the binding precedent for future cases
11. A tort imposing a duty to exercise reasonable care to ensure a person's actions do not adversely affect others
12. A civil remedy providing monetary compensation