Across
2. Style of child rearing that is high in acceptance but overindulging and inattentive, low in control, and lax rather than appropriate in autonomy granting.
4. Style of child rearing that combines low acceptance and involvement, little control, and indifference to autonomy granting.
8. Gender _____: image of oneself as relatively masculine or feminine in characteristics.
9. Type of discipline that involves communicating the effects of the child's misbehavior on others.
13. _______ _______ styles: combinations of parenting behaviors that occur over a wide range of situations (2 words, usually hyphenated).
14. _______ imperatives: standards that protect people's rights and welfare.
15. _______ aggression: a form of hostile aggression that harms others through threats of physical aggression, name-calling, or hostile teasing.

Down
1. Mild punishment involving removal of the child from the immediate setting until he/she is ready to behave appropriately (2 words).
3. Style of child rearing that is low in acceptance and involvement, high in coercive control, and low in autonomy granting.
5. Style of child rearing that involves high acceptance and involvement, adaptive control techniques, and appropriate autonomy granting.
6. _______ conventions: customs determined solely by consensus, such as table manners.
7. Gender _____: understanding that sex remains the same even if outward appearance changes.
10. Gender _____: the process of developing gender roles.
11. Gender _____ theory: approach to gender typing that combines social learning and cognitive-developmental features.
12. _______ aggression: a form of hostile aggression that harms others through physical injury to individuals or their property.