

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

CPR and first aid 2019

Across

2. CPR is given to a person who is not responsive and not _____

6. gloves, soap and water, and breathing barriers all prevent disease _____ during first aid and CPR

8. A _____ is a serious condition where plaque becomes lodged in a person's brain

9. _____ is a severe allergic reaction where a person cannot breathe

11. A 3rd _____ burn is very serious and must be seen by a doctor

12. if a person is having an episode with either hypoglycemia or hyperglycemia, you give them _____ and wait 15 min to see if they improve.

14. AED are a lifesaving machine, which can be used by any end user when giving CPR to try and restart or regulate the _____

15. To give compressions to an infant who needs CPR, use 2 _____

Down

1. The heimlich is given to someone who is _____ and cannot breathe or cough

3. Use a _____ to stop severe bleeding of an arm or leg if you think they will die from bleeding

4. if someone is not responsive, we call them _____

5. CPR is 30 _____ and 2 rescue breaths

7. you must obtain _____ from a responsive victim before providing care

10. Only stop giving CPR if an AED arrives, the person revives, you are too tired to continue, or the _____ arrive

13. How do you treat most muscle and joint injuries as a lay responder for first aid?