

Extra Credit

Across

2. An alternative process to traditional criminal court for people who have been arrested for misdemeanors, nonviolent felonies, and have a history of alcohol or drug abuse, or who have committed a crime and have a mental illness.
5. Is stricter than curfew and affords greater control over offenders' activities.
11. The action of discouraging an action or event through instilling doubt or fear of the consequences.
13. Are determined by the severity of the offense and, like restitution, can be paid in installments.
14. Where participants are involved in activities while they live and work independently in the community.
16. Long-term peer-led programs that force chronic addicts to face their addiction using group confrontational methods.
17. Repaying the victim as a step toward offender rehabilitation.
18. A nonresidential alternative to incarceration that blends high levels of control with the delivery of specific services needed by offenders.

19. The act of instilling fear of severe punishment in the general public, so as to prevent them from committing crimes in the future.

20. The dispensing or receiving of reward or punishment especially in the hereafter

Down

1. Requires that we repay in kind what another has done for us.
3. A behavior modification program that increases a client's community freedom depending on the amount of time spent in the program and the client's behavior, employment status, and amount of money saved.
4. A common problem that is correlated with people who end up on community correctional supervision.
6. A community based tool that is increasingly used in a wide variety of situations, such as pretrial release, as a condition of diversion, or following sentencing.
7. A type of punishment that is meant to discourage future criminal behavior in a person being charged with a crime.
8. Both a substance abuse problem and a mental health diagnosis.

9. An entry-point measure for chronic drug users where the body is cleansed of drugs so that treatment while sober can begin.
10. To deprive of ability, qualification, or strength; make incapable or unfit; disable.
12. The action of restoring someone to health or normal life through training and therapy after imprisonment, addiction, or illness.
15. An approach to justice in which the response to a crime is to organize a meeting between the victim and the offender, sometimes with representatives of the wider community.

Word Bank

Retribution	Home Detention	Fines	Incapacitation
Level Systems	Electronic Monitoring	Co-Occurring Disorders	Restitution
Day Reporting Center	Outpatient Treatment	Special Deterrence	Deterrence
Rehabilitation	Norm of Reciprocity	Problem Solving Courts	General Deterrence
Restoration	Detoxification	Therapeutic Communities	Substance Abuse