

The Total Health Care Team

Across

2. Registered nurse with a masters degree who works under the supervision of a physician
6. training in radiology procedures; assist radiologist
7. has associate degree and works under the supervision of a Registered Occupational Therapist
8. provides basic nursing care to patients in nursing and retirement homes
12. also known as a medical technologist works under the supervision of a pathologist
14. with additional training in the ophthalmic field medical assistant can become a
15. professional nurse who completed a nursing program and passed examination
16. trained to work in physician offices on both the clinical and admin side
17. extensive training in drawing blood from veins
18. clerical and chairside assistant of dentists
20. position requires employee to have good medical terminology and administrative skills

Down

1. specialized training in nutritional management
3. skilled in performing EKGs in clinic/hospital settings
4. assist licensed pharmacist in preparing medications
5. provides special training to perform dental services including radiology, apply meds and patient education
9. lab tech who specializes in the formation, structure and function of cells
10. performs routine clerical, communication and reception tasks in a hospital setting
11. trained in certain aspects of the practice to provide assistance; under direct supervision of physician
13. professional nurse with extensive training in labor and delivery
19. has basic nursing skills and commonly work in hospitals and nursing homes