Across
2. When should you report an injury?
4. Drink ______ or other electrolyte replacement drinks.
10. Perform outdoor tasks _____ in the day or in the ______ evening.
12. How often do you receive safety training?
18. You should utilize a _____ to identify problem doors
19. Never ______ a rollup door open or closed.
20. ______ are the key to safety, so BE AWARE.
21. When cleaning a door you should __________ the tracks.
22. Use _____ masks as you feel necessary to protect from dust irritation.
23. Choose a ladder that is
24. If you are working alone, _____ another property and tell them you will be working outside.
27. The HazCOM program is also known as
28. A ____________ is the basic source of information about chemicals that you are using in the workplace.
29. When you are cleaning a unit you should _______ the hasp.
31. When lifting, legs should be _______ width apart.
32. We should always use safe ______ ____________ regardless of the type of item you are lifting.
33. ______, ________, and ________ are our leading cause of injury.

Down
1. Do not lift and ________
3. The ______ inventory should be updated and posted.
5. ______ is PS program to enhance our employees’ health and safety.
7. What is one component of the public storage safety program?
9. Wear ______ to protect against splinters, sharps, and insects.
11. Break up outdoor tasks into ________ tasks and take rest breaks throughout the day.
13. The Safety binder should be updated with all _____ topics.
15. You never ______ a heavy object alone.
16. You should never leave ______ in golf cart ignition.
17. Where can you find chemical labels and SDS sheets?
19. Never ______ a rollup door open or closed.
21. The HazCOM program is also known as
24. If you are working alone, _____ another property and tell them you will be working outside.
25. Wear ________ footwear when snow/ice is present.
26. What is the document that contains all you need to know about a chemical?