

Georgia Geography

Across

4. The tallest waterfall east of the Mississippi river
5. This river flows southeast and is the natural boundary between Georgia and South Carolina
7. The Piedmont region is in what part of Georgia?
8. These mountains are Georgia's highest and wettest
9. The Coastal Plain as good _____
14. What percent of the population lives in the Piedmont region
15. This is the state's smallest region and located in the northwest corner of Georgia
18. This region is located in the northeast corner of Georgia

19. This physical feature's name comes from the Seminole word meaning "land of the trembling earth"
 20. This Piedmont region is known for its _____ which only found elsewhere in New Mexico
 22. Converting water into energy
 24. This region's climate is similar to the Blue Ridge region, with slightly less rainfall
 25. In 1828 gold was discovered here
- ## Down
1. A two mile long and 1000 feet deep gorge
 2. High rises that are connected in a line
 3. These are located along Georgia's coast line and are popular destinations for tourists

6. This river begins in the Blue Ridge Mountains and flows southwest
10. The Earth is divided into _____
11. The largest region
12. Summer tends to be _____ in the Coastal Region
13. The carpet capital of the world
16. The name means "foot of the mountains"
17. Georgia's highest peak
21. This marks the part of the state where elevation begins to drastically drop towards sea level
23. Georgia is divided into five _____