

Driver's Ed Vocabulary

Across

2. Ability to see colors
 3. The point at which the weight of an object is evenly distributed
 4. A crash that results or one object hitting another with sudden force
 8. Vision that gives objects their three dimensional appearance-this helps a person judge the relative distance between objects
 11. A curve that slopes up from the inside edge
 16. Anti-lock brake system-keeps wheels from locking
 17. A skid on a turn or a curve
 19. Events that could happen
 20. Area outside the vehicle that is not visible to the driver

23. Traction or friction

24. Regualtes drivers licensing, vehicle registration, etc

25. Generator that provides electricity

26. Saying aloud what you sense in real traffic situations

Down

1. To make allowances while driving impaired with a cold or the flu

5. A safety feature that requires the driver/passenger to take action to protect themselves

6. A skid that occurs when the tire suddely loses pressure

7. The center of your focus

9. Colorless, odorless, highly poioness gas that is produced by burning fuel

10. Speed limit that interrupts normal driving speed for a limited time

12. Blood alcohol content (% of alcohol in blood)

13. Selection between 2 or more options

14. The force that pushes a moving object out of a curve and into a straight path

15. A skid that occurs when you press on the brakes so hard one or more tires lock

18. Device that engages and disengages the engine - connected the drive shaft

21. Road that is higher in center than edges

22. Substance with low freezing point that is added to the radiator