

Name: _____

Date: _____

A to Z of Scottish Food & Drink

Across

1. This pink-fleshed fish lives in the Tay and is farmed across Scotland. Often served smoked.
2. A wee dram....it's also known as "the water of life".
5. Some examples are pheasant and grouse. Often sought by hunters, who aren't playing about!
8. Savoury biscuits - lovely with cheese.

10. The full Scottish features these

11. The other national drink! HQ is in Cumbernauld.
12. Deer-y me! Check page 18 to see what the Great Glen Charcuterie uses to produce salami and chorizo.
13. Oil workers' favourite brand of beef

Down

3. This fish is also known as Pike Perch and can be found in some lochs in the Scottish Borders.
4. Root vegetable served with H and P on 25th January.
6. This meat makes a lovely Sunday roast or a gorgeous Rogan Josh (or a woolly scarf!)
7. Savoury "pudding" served on Burns Night
9. Also known as agriculture