

Name: _____

Date: _____

History Vocabulary

Across

2. a member of a nomadic people who live chiefly by hunting, fishing, and harvesting wild food

3. the period of time before written records

9. the arts and other manifestations of human backgrounds

10. the study of human history and analysis of artifacts and other physical remains

11. the stage of human social development and organization that is considered most advanced

13. by word of mouth; spoken rather than written

14. a primate of a family (Hominidae) that includes humans and their fossil ancestors and also (in recent systems) at least some of the great apes

15. the later part of the Stone Age

16. the attribution of a soul to plants, inanimate objects, and natural phenomena

17. the primate species to which modern humans belong; humans regarded as a species

18. the application of scientific knowledge for practical purposes

19. the science or practice of farming

20. movement from one part of something to another

Down

1. the determination of the age or date of organic matter

4. early phase of the Stone Age

5. the revolution of the latest part of the stone ages

6. tame (an animal) and keep it as a pet or for farm produce

7. an object made by a human being, typically an item of cultural or historical interest

8. a member of a people having no permanent abode, and who travel from place to place to find fresh pasture for their livestock

12. a group of close-knit and interrelated families (especially associated with families in the Scottish Highlands)