

Technology

Across

- 3. The ability to use technology to find, organize, and evaluate information.
- 5. A link from a hypertext file or document to another location or file, activated by clicking on a highlighted word or image on the screen.
- 6. To save the URL of a webpage for easy access in the future.
- 8. A computer language used to create web pages.
- 11. The amount of data that can be sent through a connection at one time.
- 13. A group of networked computers that share a common address (.edu, .com).
- 15. Instructions you input for a computer to follow.
- 16. The action of writing CODE or instructions for the computer to follow.
- 20. Hyper Text Transfer Protocol- the set of rules for transferring files on the World Wide Web.
- 21. The process of converting data into code.
- 22. To practice appropriate and responsible behavior when using technology
- 25. A program that searches for items in a database or sites on the WWW.
- 26. A program used to navigate the WWW.

Down

- 1. A way to narrow search results by using the operators AND, OR, & NOT.
- 2. A file format for compressing pictures
- 4. A security system that protects a network.
- 7. The global system of interconnected computer networks that link billions of devices.
- 9. A small text file stored in a computer's hard drive by a website.
- 10. An organized collection of information that is searchable.
- 12. The text field in a web browser where an URL is displayed or typed.
- 14. A temporary storage place for quick retrieval of frequently used data.
- 17. An unit of memory (8 binary digits represent a character).
- 18. Central Processing Unit- The brain of the computer.
- 19. The opening page of a website.
- 23. A set of computers connected together for the purpose of sharing resources.
- 24. Uniform Resource Locator- The address of a resource on the WWW.