

Name: _____

Date: _____

Occupational Therapy Month

Across

2. Occupational therapists work with individuals who have sustained a TBI, to ensure the greatest independence and safety in their everyday lives. What does TBI stand for?

4. Occupational therapists work with all ages across the.....

7. Occupational therapists can promote success in the _____ by analyzing the person, their job tasks, and the environment. They will work with the employer and employee to modify the environment to prevent injury, or promote a successful return to work.

11. Occupational therapists work on promoting ADL independence. What does ADL stand for?

12. In the schools, occupational therapists work to increase a child's ability to focus through _____ approaches.

14. Specially trained occupational therapists can help limit swelling in the extremities. This swelling is called _____.

Down

1. Profession ranked number 13 according to the US News 100 best jobs in America?

3. Name an overuse injury that occupational therapy can help treat through use of modalities, exercises, and adapting your workspace or daily tasks.

5. Adaptive device used to put on socks (originally made of oatmeal containers).

6. What is the goal of OT?

8. One of the settings OT would work on handwriting in?

9. Retained primitive may contribute to a decrease in the ability to attend at school, or other daily functions across the lifespan. OT is able to help integrate these.

10. For young children, occupational therapists may work on promoting appropriate _____ patterns, such as using toys appropriately.

13. Device used to pick up items out of arm's length, or to aid in dressing tasks such as putting on pants.