

Name: _____

Date: _____

Vocabulary Practice List #19

Across

2. a sprouted seed that can now go through photosynthesis (young plant)
7. the second stage in the complete metamorphosis life cycle where the goal of the organism is to feed and store energy to go through a metamorphosis(larva look very different than the adult)
8. a type of life cycle that usually consists of 4 stages of development and one stage includes a major body change(egg>larva>pupa>adult *butterflies go through this type of a life cycle)
9. the third stage of the butterflies life cycle&the complete metamorphosis where the chrysalis(cocoon) is made and major body changes takes place
10. the enclosure that is made during the complete metamorphosis life cycle(for a butterfly the chrysalis is called a cocoon)

Down

1. a type of life cycle that consists 3 main stages of growth where the young looks like the adult and no metamorphosis takes place(egg nymph>adult *grasshoppers go through this type of a life cycle)
3. a major change that an organism goes through during its life cycle(ex.a frog grows legs, a caterpillar grow wigs to become a butterfly)
4. the last stage of all life cycles where the organism's goal is to reproduce to carry on its species)
5. the first stage in most animals life cycle
6. the second stage of the incomplete metamorphosis life cycle where the organism's goal is to feed and grow (the nymph looks very similar to the adult, just smaller)
11. the first stage of a plants life cycle