

Georgia studies puzzle

Across

2. Which region of Georgia contains the north east part of the state of Georgia, the appalachian trail, Amicalola falls, and Helen?

9. Which term describes an imaginary line drawn around the earth that has equall distances from both poles dividing the earth into north and south hemispheres?

12. What word describes the type of weather a region has over a period of time?

13. Which region means "Foot of the mountain", has red clay soil, has granite base, and contains the city of Atlanta?

15. Which physical feature of Georgia is located in the coastal plains, has endangered plants and animals, is the largest freshwater in Georgia, and means land of the trembeling earth?

Down

1. Which physical feature of Georgia seperates the Piedmont/Coastal Plains and has elevation drops?

3. Which river contains the border between Georgia/Alabama and provides lots of water supply for Georgia?

4. Which region occupys 3/5 of the states land and contains the okefenokee swamp?

5. Which is the smallest region of Georgia that contains the northwest corner, coal, and the TAG corner?

6. Which group of islands in Georgia protect the state of Georgia from tornados, hurricanes, or enemies?

7. Which region has wide valleys, narrow ridges, crops, textiles, and apples?

8. Which word describes rain, sleet, snow, or hail?

10. Which river contains the border between Georgia and South Carolina?

11. what word describes the day to day changes in temperature, precipitation, and wind?

14. What term describes a period of below average precipitation in a region that results in water shortages?