Name:	Date:
10.11101	_ ~

From Belly to Baby

Across

- 2. the surgical removal of foreskin from tip of the penis
- 4. build up of bilirubin causing a yellow hue to skin
- 6. downy hair that covers the newborn, especially found on shoulders, back, cheeks, and ears
- 11. baby receives nourishment directly from breast that has muliple benefits for both mom and baby
- 14. bluish discoloration to hands and feet
- 16. the medical term for postpartum vaginal bleeding
- 17. the initial milk produced for several days after delivery

- 20. stands for Spontaneous rupture of membranes, another way of saying your "water broke"
- 21. waxy coating that covers baby's skin 22. in true labor as labor progresses they become more regular and intense causing cervical changes

Down

- 1. the period of time, around 6 weeks, after you've had a baby
- 3. your baby's level will be checked after their first feeding, usually at 1-4 hours old
- 5. an organ that develops during pregnancy and is the lifeline to supply baby with oxygen and nutrients
- 7. black, tarry stool
- 8. white bumps found across nose and chin

- 9. baby wearing only a diaper, placed directly on mom's chest
- 10. a surgical cute between vagina and anus
- 12. shifting, overlapping of skull bones, can give baby a "conehead" appearance
- 13. a screen that's completed prior to discharge to ensure your baby can hear
- 15. connection between baby and the placenta, usually 3 vessel cord
- 18. "back is _____". (The slogan that is used when putting baby to sleep to help prevent SIDS).
- 19. a hormone that plays a major role in pregnancy, labor, and lactation