

Grade 8 Life Orientation Revision

Across

1. A career category that likes to analyse and figure things out.
3. A _____ is a person in the community who is admired and looked up to.
8. A career category that involves starting up and carrying out projects.
9. A school subject related to the realistic career category.
11. Self _____ is when you are encouraged to do something by your own enthusiasm without external pressure.
13. A career category that involves helping and interacting with people.

16. A career category that involves hands-on, practical activities.

17. A person with this learning style remembers best by moving around and doing something.
19. _____ can be defined as 'separation, being placed apart'.

Down

2. A person with this learning style remembers best when dealing with information through reading and writing.
4. An example of a social need.
5. Factor that influences self-concept that is defined as 'the circumstances that surround someone'.

6. A school subject related to the investigative career category.

7. _____ refers to a serious disagreement or argument
10. A career category that involves 'doing things by the book'.
12. _____ refers to a person's natural abilities or skills.
14. A person with this learning style remembers best by using their ears.
15. A career category that involves working with forms, designs and patterns.
18. A person with this learning style remembers best when using their eyes.