

vocabulary 1.2, 1.3, and 1.4

Across

2. everything that exists in a particular environment.
 4. is information about an event that does not come from a person who experienced that event.
 5. area with at least one unifying physical or human feature such as a climate, landforms, population, or history.
 7. describes places exact position on earth in terms of longitude and latitude, imaginary lines drawn around earth to help geographers describe places.

9. is information that comes directly from a person who experienced an event.
 10. is an object made by a human being, such as a tool or a weapon.
 11. is a community's cultural and historical background, passed down in spoken stories and songs.
 12. how people affect their physical surroundings.
 13. is the study of human kind in all aspects, especially development and culture.

Down

1. location of a place relative to another place.
 3. is the scientific study of ancient cultures through the examination of artifacts and other evidence.
 6. a mix of human and non-human features at a given location.
 8. is an unfair preference for or dislike of something.