Name: _____ Date: _____

Statistics puzzle

Across

3. Divid the entire population into pre-existing segments or clusters

6. Mean of a sample

7. Measurement or observation from entire population

9. Results from omitting population members from the sample frame

10. A characteristic of the individual to be measured or observed

12. Divid entire population into subgroups called strata

15. Use a variety of sampling methods to create successively smaller groups at each stage

Down

1. The people or objects included in the study

2. A list of individuals from which a sample is actually selected

4. Number all members of population sequentially.

5. Create a sample by using data from population members that are readily avalible

8. A numarical facsimile or representation of a real-world phenomenon

11. The mean of the population

13. The study of how to collect, organize, analyze, and interpret data

14. Measurement or observation from part of the population