Across

1. A branch of medicine that deals with mental, emotional, or behavioral disorders
2. A psychologist who studies how unconscious motives and conflicts determine human behavior, feelings, and thoughts
3. The scientific study of behavior and mental processes
4. A psychologist who diagnoses and treats people with emotional disturbances
5. Interested in the basic elements of human experience
6. A method of self observation in which participants report their thoughts & feelings
7. Research
8. Study how human and animals adapt to their environments
9. A psychologist who studies how we process, store, retrieve, and use information and how thought processes influence our behavior
10. A psychologist who analyzes how organisms learn or modify their behavior based on response to events in the environment
11. A psychologist who may work in a mental health or social welfare agency
12. A psychologist who uses psychological concepts to make the work place a more satisfying environment for employees & managers
13. A psychologist who studies the emotional, cognitive, biological, personal, & social changes that occur as individuals mature
14. A psychologist who believes that each person has freedom in directing his or her future and achieving personal growth
15. A psychologist who studies how chemical and physical changes in our body influence behavior
16. Educated guess about same phenomenon
17. A psychologist who diagnoses and treat people with emotional disturbances
18. A psychologist who is concerned with helping students learn
19. Private, unobservable mental reason
20. A complex explanation based on findings from a large number of experimental studies
21. Physical needs such as sleep and hunger
22. Using psychological principles to solve more immediate problems
23. A psychologist who studies sensation, perception, learning, motivation, and/or emotion in carefully controlled laboratory conditions

Down

1. A general approach to gathering info & answering questions so that error and biases are minimized
2. Using psychological principles to solve more immediate problems
3. A general approach to gathering info & answering questions so that error and biases are minimized
4. A psychologist who analyses how organisms learn or modify their behavior based on response to events in the environment
5. Research
6. Study how human and animals adapt to their environments
7. A psychologist who studies how chemical and physical changes in our body influence behavior
8. A psychologist who diagnoses and treat people with emotional disturbances
9. A psychologist who studies how we process, store, retrieve, and use information and how thought processes influence our behavior
10. A psychologist who studies how we process, store, retrieve, and use information and how thought processes influence our behavior
11. A method of self observation in which participants report their thoughts & feelings
12. A psychologist who diagnoses and treat people with emotional disturbances
13. A psychologist who studies how unconscious motives and conflicts determine human behavior, feelings, and thoughts
14. A branch of medicine that deals with mental, emotional, or behavioral disorders
15. Physical needs such as sleep and hunger
16. Educated guess about same phenomenon
17. A psychologist who studies sensation, perception, learning, motivation, and/or emotion in carefully controlled laboratory conditions
18. A psychologist who studies how we process, store, retrieve, and use information and how thought processes influence our behavior
19. Private, unobservable mental reason
20. A complex explanation based on findings from a large number of experimental studies
21. Physical needs such as sleep and hunger
22. Using psychological principles to solve more immediate problems
23. A psychologist who studies sensation, perception, learning, motivation, and/or emotion in carefully controlled laboratory conditions

Name: ___________________________  Date: ______________