

Short Story Terms

Across

4. Story is told by a character referred to a "I". Reader see's things through that character's eyes
5. Main Message of a story.
7. Time and place in which the story takes place.
9. When a character struggles against an outside force.
12. The relationship of the narrator to the story
13. The sequence of events in a story

14. Person, animal, or imaginary creature in a literary work.

15. The narrator see's into the minds of multiple character's

Down

1. The person who tells the story
2. The narrator is someone outside of the story, and relates the thoughts of only 1 character. "he or she"
3. Struggle within the mind of the character.

6. Central struggle between opposite forces in the story.

8. Grow and change during a story

10. Beginning of the plot which introduces the characters, setting, and situation

11. Remains the same throughout the story.