

Government Choice Board

Across

2. State in which the supreme power rests in the body of citizens entitled to vote

4. A government where a king and his advisers make the most decisions; it is a type of unitary government

7. And economic structure or government that promotes the establishment

12. The King has an unlimited amount of power

13. Government in which the ruler has an absolute power to whatever he wishes and make the force whatever laws he chooses

14. Local governments such as state or country systems may have some power, but they are under the control of the central government.

15. Powers of the ruler are restricted to those granted under the constitution or laws of nation

Down

1. The name given to the head of government; chief executive and a parliamentary democracy

3. The government in which God to see it as a true leader in religious leaders serve as the political leaders

5. The name given to the group of people elected to run a parliamentary system of government

6. Government under the control of one all-powerful leader

8. Power is shared between the national and local governments including executive, legislative, and judicial branches

9. It originates from the Greek word "demos" which means people another name for democratic government system

10. The chief executive of government

11. A system in which a political party or other small group takes over a government and makes all of the major decisions; government by the few