

Name: _____

Date: _____

Vocab-By the Great Horn Spoon-Chapter One

- | | |
|--|---------------|
| 1. to satisfy thirst F | A. anxious |
| 2. extremely important O | B. clamor |
| 3. a thought based more on feeling than on fact that something is wrong or bad Q | C. penetrate |
| 4. not discouraged or frightened by dangers or difficulties R | D. scoundrel |
| 5. dreadful or urgent E | E. dire |
| 6. a dangerous disease that causes severe sickness and diarrhea P | F. slake |
| 7. worried; very eager to do something A | G. baffle(d) |
| 8. depressed, discouraged, or disheartened J | H. oozed |
| 9. to move in an unsteady, jerky way L | I. balance |
| 10. to puzzle or confuse someone G | J. dispirited |
| 11. violent or dangerous; very strong or extreme S | K. rogue |
| 12. when a bird or animal's outer skin comes off N | L. lurch |
| 13. to go inside or through something C | M. despicable |
| 14. to flow out slowly H | N. molting |
| 15. a dishonest person K | O. imperative |
| 16. a thing or a person who is disliked M | P. cholera |
| 17. ability to keep steady and not fall over I | Q. suspicion |
| 18. to demand something noisily B | R. undaunted |
| 19. a wicked person, especially someone who cheats and lies D | S. fierce |