Across
4. The steps to follow in an emergency
11. How many seconds should you check a person for breathing?
12. What are the three Cs for treating burns
13. Law that protects people who give care without anything in return
15. How do you check for consciousness?
16. What condition is a severe allergic reaction known as?

Down
1. What is the acronym that identifies a life-threatening condition
2. A person is responsive and showing signs of a life-threatening condition but refuses care; what should you do?
3. How do you open an airway?
5. M represents what part when using the SAMPLE acronym
6. How do you know an emergency may be occurring?
7. A person experiencing a lack of blood flow to the brain is a symptom of what condition?
8. Which bodily substance isolation practice includes barrier items like gloves?
9. What acronym should you consider when evaluating for a brain attack?
10. A person just involved in a traumatic situation may begin to display signs of what condition?
14. What skill should you apply to a victim showing no obvious signs of life?