Name:	Date:
-------	-------

First Aid - CPR Review

Across

- 4. The steps to follow in an emergency
- 11. How many seconds should your check a person for breathing?
- 12. What are the three Cs for treating burns
- 13. Law that protects people who give care without anything in return
- 15. How do you check for consciousness?
- 16. What condition is a severe alleric reaction known as?

Down

- 1. What is the acronym that identifies a life-threatening condition
- 2. A person is responsive and showing signs of a life-threatening condition but refuses care; what should you do?
- 3. How do you open an airway?
- 5. M represents what part when using the SAMPLE acronym
- 6. How do you know an emergency may be occuring?

- 7. A person experiencing a lack of blood flow to the brain is a symptom of what condition?
- 8. Which bodily substance isolation practice includes barrier items like gloves?
- 9. What acronym should you consider when evaluating for a brain attack?
- 10. A person just involved in a tramatic situation may begin to display signs of what condition?
- 14. What skill should you apply to a victim showing no obvious signs of life?