

Name: _____

Date: _____

World History Period 1

Across

1. This is what happened to some animals that lived in the ice age, when the temperatures got warmer
3. This river was one of the longest rivers in Mesopotamia
6. Writing utensil
13. During this age the ice age started
15. This place used to be Mesopotamia.
17. Focusing on a job
18. A system of writing
19. It was a civilization in southern Mesopotamia. It was the city with the first evidence of writing.
20. This system was improved so there would be enough water for all the plants.
21. Trading goods and services without money

Down

2. This revolution is also known as the agricultural revolution. This revolution happened during the age when the temperatures were getting warmer and the ice age ended.
4. Planting seeds to make your own food instead of gathering what is provided to you by nature
5. People who moved from place to place looking for resources and food
7. Farmers used this method to help fertilize their field. The farmers would cut down trees and grass, then burn them, and finally use the ashes to put in the dirt to fertilize it.

8. Taming animals. They would tame animals like horses, dogs, goats, pigs, and cows so they could use them as a food source, for hunting, and to help them travel.
9. This age occurred after the Neolithic age. During this age tools and weapons were being made stronger and more durable than they were.
10. Mountain of God
11. Professional record keepers
12. Extra food
14. Nomads did this so they could get plant foods
16. This system divided up everyone into groups that they fit in. This was one way they were able to have a stable society