

Name: _____

Lesson 3

Across

3. A figure with many sides, such as a pyramid

4. Having many fingers or toes (more than the normal number)

5. A machine that writes down many different changes in the body while the person answers questions; a lie detector test

11. A speech in which every word has one tone of voice

12. Having or assuming many different forms

16. A long speech given by one person

18. An abnormal fear of being the only one there; fear of being alone

19. A hospital that treats many different kinds of diseases

20. The creator of this crossword

21. Having many syllables

Down

1. Control of a product or service by one's company

2. The belief in many gods

6. Having only one syllable

7. A person who knows how to speak, read, or write many languages

8. Speaking or writing only one language

9. Having one color; a painting, design, photo, or outfit that is only one color or shades of one color.

10. A closed figure with many straight lines that connect

13. Having many different colors

14. A track for subway or train cars that only has one rail

15. Something made out of one single large block or piece of stone; one single stone monument

17. An eyeglass for one eye