

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

The Safety Connection Crossword

Across

- When you are heating something in this, always point it away from yourself and others.
- Secure loose _____ before beginning a lab
- Never place this where someone may trip over it.
- Know the location of this important piece of safety equipment.
- This kind of glassware is dangerous to use because it has stress points where the glass may break.
- Never work _____ in the lab.

12. Report any accidents to your teacher, no matter how _____ they seem.

15. _____ lab equipment only as the teacher instructs.

17. Never _____ any liquid while in the lab.

18. What you should do in the even of a fir in the lab.

19. Know where this communication device is in your lab. You will need it if there is an emergency.

20. Do not wear these in the laboratory.

Down

3. What you need before you can bring an animal to the classroom.

5. Wear this to protect your clothing.

6. If you get a chemical in your eyes, rinse them with water for at least this many minutes.

7. _____ is one chemical with another can be dangerous. Never do so unless the teacher tells you to.

9. Never pour water into this; instead slowly pour this into water.

13. _____ the day's experiment before you begin, paying special attention to safety issues.

14. Some of these are corrosive.

16. Handle scissors, scalpels, knives, and other _____ objects with extreme caution.