

Allyson's English Crossword

Across

1. the biography of a person narrated by himself or herself
4. a series of events that form the story in a novel, movie, etc.
6. the faculty or power of uttering sounds through the mouth by the controlled expulsion of air; speech:
9. a word or phrase for one thing that is used to refer to another thing in order to show or suggest that they are similar
10. the most interesting and exciting part of something : the high point
11. the use of words that begin with the same sound near one another
12. a conscious state of mind or predominant emotion
13. writing that is about facts or real events

16. a phrase that uses the words like or as to describe someone or something by comparing it with someone or something else that is similar
  19. an imaginary person that represents a thing or idea
  20. language that causes people to imagine pictures in their mind
- Down
2. a state or condition of mental uncertainty or excitement, as in awaiting a decision or outcome, usually accompanied by a degree of apprehension or anxiety.
  3. the faculty or power of uttering sounds through the mouth by the controlled expulsion of air; speech:
  5. to give a suggestion of (something that has not yet happened)

7. one of two or more words or phrases that end in the same sounds
8. the way someone thinks, feels, and behaves : someone's personality
14. to say the words that are heard as part of (a movie, television show, etc.) and that describe what is being seen
15. the time, place, and conditions in which the action of a book, movie, etc., takes place
17. the use of words that mean the opposite of what you really think especially in order to be funny
18. a subject of discourse, discussion, meditation, or composition; topic