

Name: _____

Date: _____

Ch 1 Your Health Care Career

Across

7. federal health insurance program for individuals age 65 and older and certain people with disabilities

10. trained professional who works with residents who have speech, language, or other communication problems. May also assist with swallowing difficulties.

11. Government agency that surveys and certifies long term care facilities approved to receive federal funding

12. nothing by mouth

13. care for terminally ill patients that aims to provide comfort and alleviate pain

14. most important person in the interdisciplinary team

Down

1. care for residents needing post acute care from both nursing and rehabilitation services

2. licensed health professional who uses methods that include exercise, heat, massage, mobilization, and manipulation to reduce pain and improve mobility

3. staff member who assesses residents' functional capabilities and determines the appropriate level of care

4. general manager of the facility

5. senior nursing professional who directs the approach for care and determines staffing requirements

6. joint federal-state health insurance program for low-income individuals and families

8. ability to act independently and make decisions for oneself

9. Nursing professional with day to day responsibility of supervising resident care