Across
2. When tasting food, never put the tasting ________- back into the food
3. Proper first-aid for severe bleeding is _______ pressure.
4. __________ occur when something is on the floor that shouldn’t be
5. do not use food from cans that are leaking, bulged or ________
10. Extinguish a grease _______ with baking soda.
11. Cutting boards need to be scrubbed thoroughly with a cleanser containing _____________.
18. Fo an electrial fire, use a ______________ fire extinguisher.
21. The type of burn where the skin is red and blisters form is called a __________ degree burn.
22. Always ________ matches away from you and hold them upright so prevent cuts.
23. Always use a cutting __________ to cut your foods on while cooking.
24. ____________ knives are dangerous because they require more pressure to cut foods.
26. Handle all __________ equipment with dry hands
28. Keep these cold and do not buy cracked or soiled ones. ______
29. You should ________ all accidents that happen in the class to the teacher.

Down
1. You should do this immediately when food is spilled onto the floor. _______ up
6. Learn to cut ________ from you when cutting food or peeling vegetables.
7. This may happen to an electrical circuit if too many applliances are used at the same time.
8. An ounce of ________ is worth a pound of cure
9. Do not buy food in ________ jars or jars with bulging lids
12. Always wash _____________ before cooking and if you touch something with germs.
13. Make sure matchse are out by running water over them before you ________ them away
14. __________ objects and knives should be stored seperately to
15. One of three rules to remember about keeping food safe it to keep it ________.
16. One way to keep food safe is to keep ________ foods ________.
(same word)
17. A safety hazard that is cause by hot objects are ______
19. Keep ____ foods above 140 degrees until serving time.
20. When handling hot pans, be sure to use ________ holders and not damp dish towels or wash cloths
25. Tilt ______ of pots and pans towards you so that steam will not burn your hands or face
27. A type of safety hazard that is cause by share objects is